After the snow storm, it was the turn of demonstrators to rant in front of the laboratories of the company ITR Canada Inc., in Baie d'Urfé. Following a report on the English CTV network, which showed innocent dogs and distressed dogs pulled very aggressively in cages inappropriate for animals, pigs shouting for suffering, technicians who beat violently on animals The operating tables 269 Life invited all activists from Quebec to protest against these cruel practices. The extracts used to prepare this report were filmed without the knowledge of the people of the ITR laboratories by a laboratory technician who is also an animal rights officer. The company tests medicines and pharmaceuticals on various animals including monkeys, dogs, pigs and rats. Thus, on this Friday, March 17,
